

Set alongside a private stretch of the Saugatuck River's west branch which has flowed here for hundreds of years, this property is almost timeless in its tranquility. Amid an enclave of Weston's finest luxury homes, in one of Fairfield County's most opulent neighborhoods surrounding Crystal Lake, this newer custom cedar shingle colonial built to supreme standards is truly a stunning departure from the ordinary. On two premium, expansive, flat, level and dry acres, this private residence is situated in a way to maximize the heart-stirring riverfront view and access for swimming and fishing while providing utter privacy and seclusion, without sacrificing utility of lawn and recreation areas.
